

POST OFFICE BILL PASSED LAST NIGHT

JANESVILLE'S CLAIM FAVORABLY ACTED UPON.

Both Houses Have Taken Definite Action, and Money to Begin Work Is Appropriated—Amount Is $50,000—President's Signature All That Is Needed Now.

At three o'clock this afternoon, Postmaster O. F. Nowlan received a telegram from Senator John C. Spooner, saying that the Janesville post office bill had "been taken care of."

The Chicago Times-Herald's Washington special says: Public building bills were passed by both houses of congress yesterday.

At a night session the following house public buildings bills were passed:

New Iberia, La.	$50,000	Janesville, Wis.	$50,000
San Clara, Wis.	50,000	Clinton, Ia.	100,000
Freeport, Ill.	75,000	Oskaloosa, Ia.	50,000
Streator, Ill.	50,000	Creston, Ia.	50,000
Leadville, Col.	50,000	Salem, Oregon	100,000
Bristol, Tenn.	50,000	Annisson, Ala.	50,000
St. Cloud, Minn.	50,000	Menominee, Mich.	50,000
Monmouth, Ill.	47,000

The senate concurred in those amendments to the bill authorizing the erection of a public building at Joplin, Mo.

The house bill increasing the limit of cost of the public building at Stockton, Cal., to $156,900, was passed with an amendment providing for the erection of a public building at Los Angeles, Cal., at a cost of $250,000, $100,000 of which is carried by the bill.

Work of the Senate.

The senate spent the greater part of the day in consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill. Mr. Pettus (Ala.) offered an amendment appropriating $100,000 for a public building in Selma, Ala. Telling this as a text, Mr. Allison discussed at length the situation of public building bills. He thought it might be well to place the bills passed by both branches of congress by the sundry civil bill. He thought it necessary to appropriate for them, not the full amount, but enough to acquire the sites and start the work. The amount appropriated by the amendment was reduced to $50,000, and in that form it was agreed to.

An amendment was also added appropriating $50,000 for a building at Evanson, Wyo.

An amendment which was passed over last night strikes out a provision inserted by the house that one-half of the sums for the support of public buildings and grounds in the District of Columbia be paid from the revenues of the district.

Puts Burden on Uncle Sam

The striking out of the provision makes the national government responsible for the entire expense of these public buildings and grounds, including parks and reservations. After a long discussion, in which Mr. Chilton, Mr. Allison, Mr. Gorman and Mr. Faulkner were the participants, the amendment was agreed to, 43 to 13, and the paragraphs inserted by the house were stricken out.

Mr. Allison offered an amendment appropriating the money necessary for work on the various public buildings authorized for the next year, giving generally from one-fourth to one half of the total amount provided as the full limit of cost. The amendment was agreed to without division.

An amendment was agreed to appropriate $24,000 for additional expenses to the public building at Cheyenne, Wyo.

The bill, after various other amendments of a minor character had been agreed to, was passed.

Filibusters Frustrated.

The house spent practically the entire time of the seven-hour session passing the public building bills, favorably upon by the committee of the whole ten days ago. The opposition sought in vain to consume time by roll calls and other filibustering tactics at various times today, but their numbers were so slim that in no case could they secure a roll call. At last their efforts to impede the passing of the bills were abandoned and they were passed with great rapidity.

Sixty-one bills in all were passed, carrying $9,352,000, $750,000 of which, however (the amount appropriated for the New York custom house), is to be repaid from the proceeds of the sale of the old building.

Only one bill failed, that appropriating $25,000 for a building at Bluefield, W. Va.

The bill for Carrollton, Ky., ($25,000) caused considerable debate and reached the third reading, when Mr. Barrett (Rep., Mass.), blocked it with a demand for the reading of the engrossed bill, and as it is unfinished business, its passage tomorrow is assured.

The conference report on the post-office appropriation bill agreeing to the senate amendment making an appropriation for the southern mail subsidy was adopted.

The general deficiency appropriation was reported, and will be considered tomorrow. It is the last of the budgets to be acted upon by the house and will probably be passed under suspension of the rules.

CONDITION OF POPE

Great Excitement Caused In Rome By The Report That His Holiness Was Dead.

Rome, March 1.—[Special]—The pope passed a restless night but was sleeping lightly toward morning. An operation is proposed. Great excitement was caused last night by the unfounded rumor that the pope had died.

A successful operation was performed on the pope this morning, and His Holiness is reported as being much benefited by the same.

The pope's illness is undoubtedly due to an ailing he took last Monday. His physicians counseled him against it, but the aged pontiff persisted.

Rome, March 1.—Pope Leo is a sick man. Indeed, his condition is so serious as to cause the gravest apprehension to his physicians. While giving audience to members of the diplomatic corps Monday, his holiness was taken with a chill, which was the first symptom of his being seriously ill. Yesterday he swooned and it was a long time before he came to. The physicians say his holiness is suffering from a severe feverish cold.

The knowledge that the illness of his holiness is severe caused a flutter among the exalted prelates. Already the holding of a possible conclave is discussed, and the names of prominent candidates for the headship of the Holy See are canvassed.

London, March 1.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily News says that all signs go to show that the next papal conclave will be divided into two factions, one favorable to a simply religious pope, while the other will wholly advocate the election of a successor who will strive to use and extend Pope Leo's political power. There is no possibility of a foreigner being elected to succeed Pope Leo.

The Janesville Pearl Button Company have started their North Main street factory after a shut down of a few weeks during which time considerable needed improvements were made.

New machinery has been added and the company are now in better shape to handle a much larger output. River shells will be sought and Harry Davenport, a member of the firm, says that the company will have no trouble in getting all the shells needed.

Several hands are now employed and more will be added.

STATE WILL EXTEND AID TO COUNTIES

M'GILLIVRAY'S JOINT RESOLUTION PASSES SENATE.

The Constitutional Amendment Permits State to Extend Aid to Counties in Building Good Roads—Assembly Building Wheeler's Bill Referred to Committee On Judiciary.

Madison, Wis., Mch. 1.—[Special]—The senate today passed the M'Gillivray joint resolution for a constitutional amendment, permitting the state to extend aid to counties in building good roads.

The committee on state affairs in response to a recommendation of the governor's message, reported three bills; one to abolish the state land office; another providing for four additional factory inspectors; the third providing a uniform system of bookkeeping for state departments.

One minor bill was passed, four killed and ten ordered to a third reading constituted the work for the session.

The assembly passed the McLeod bill, giving salaries to deputy county clerks and to deputy county treasurers.

Wheeler's bill relating to relief from judgments and orders was opposed and on motion of Assemblyman Catlin was referred.

Judge Orton's bill, relating to the adoption of children, which has been on the calendar for some time, stirred up some discussion. The motion by Assemblyman Gerner, to postpone, was lost. By a vote of 51 to 40 the assembly referred to order the bill to a third reading. By its provisions, a child taken by petitioner under two years of age and remaining with them five years, may be considered abandoned by parents.

KIPLING'S CONDITION

He Is Much Better Today—Last Night Delirium Replaced By Natural Sleep.

New York, March 1.—[Special]—The following bulletin as to Rudyard Kipling's condition was given out this morning: Kipling had a better night and his symptoms are improved. Last night delirium was replaced by natural sleep. He is still seriously ill and in fever, though much less. He continues to improve.

Mr. Kipling's condition is such that he is still within pale of danger yet there is a slow change for better. The use of oxygen was discontinued. The patient's physicians do not feel as much alarmed as they did yesterday.

New York, March 1, 7:15 A. M.—Rudyard Kipling is holding his own. This is the latest information from the Grenoble. It is meager, but the general belief is that the great writer now has a shade the better of it, and that his chance for life is a trifle improved.

New York, March 1.—At 1:30 this morning Dr. Dunham, in attendance upon Rudyard Kipling, issued a statement in regard to Mr. Kipling's condition, in which he said that he was not discouraged. "Mr. Kipling," he said, "is better in one sense and worse in another. We hope to be able to issue a more favorable bulletin in the morning."

On being asked as to what he meant by this, Dr. Dunham said that he could not explain, but physicians would understand.

It is taken to mean that Mr. Kipling has not yet passed through the crisis of the disease, but that probably the crisis will be reached before night.

AMERICANS TROOPS DO EFFECTIVE WORK

GUADALUPE BOMBARDED BY THE AMERICANS.

The Stronghold of the Insurgents Where Their Sharpshooters Have Been Annoying the Americans Is No More—A Death Results From Small Pox.

Manila, March 1.—[Special]—Guadalupe, the stronghold of the insurgents, where their Sharpshooters have been annoying the Americans, was bombarded this morning. It is estimated that fifty of the enemy were killed. One California man was wounded. A battalion of the California regiment embarked this morning on the transport St. Paul for Negros. Late advice from Iloilo report the desultory firing on pickets. Chaplain Leland, of the First Tennessee, died this morning at Iloilo, of small pox.

Berlin, March 1.—In the reicasting Tuesday Baron Bulow stated that the report of the Irene having attempted to land marines at Manila was a pure casard, the Irene being at Hongkong.

He said the Kaiserin Augusta was at Manila, where her presence was necessary in view of the numerous German merchants and residents there.

Washington, March 1.—Substantial evidence of Germany's desire to maintain and improve the friendly relations existing between the Washington and Berlin governments has been furnished to the state department.

At the request of Germany the United States has consented to protect German subjects and interests in the Philippines and Samoa, and, relying upon the promise of this government, German war ships have been withdrawn from those points.

In compliance with the German request cable instructions have been sent to Rear Admiral Dewey and Gen. Otis, informing them that hereafter German subjects and German interests in the Philippines must be provided with protection by American ships and American troops.

REBELS FIRE ON A CRUISER.

The Callao Is Attacked by Insurgent Filipinos.

Manila, March 1.—The rebels at Malabon fired upon the cruiser Callao from the jungle yesterday while Admiral Dewey was visiting the Mononock. Three shells were dropped by the monitor into the Malabon church, demolishing the structure and killing a number of rebels who were inside.

A factory at Malolos is reported to be running day and night to supply ammunition for the insurgents. The ignorance of the natives is shown by the fact that they have collected empty Springfield shells and are refilling them. Over 2,000 of these cartridges have been discovered in houses in Pandacan by an officer of the Washington volunteers.

The cruiser Charleston and the gunboat Concord have gone on a ten days' cruise, presumably looking for filibusters. It is believed that arms are being landed in small quantities at northern ports.

Everything was absolutely quiet last night, both inside and outside the city.

Troops Sent to Cebu.

Washington, March 1.—The following cablegram was received at the war department:

"Manila, Feb. 28. Adjutant General, Washington: Battalion Twenty-third infantry sailed Cebu 28th inst; battalion California volunteers last; battalion California volunteers last; Negro tomorrow; everything quiet here last three days."

With the approach of the rainy season in the Philippines, now possibly not a month off, a material increase in the sickness among our troops may be looked for. The war department authorities apprehend no alarming developments in the condition of our men as the result of the incoming of the rainy season, but has prepared to meet any possible contingencies. The city of Manila itself is said to be a comparatively healthy vicinity, and the troops remaining there, with reasonable care, may be expected to get along fairly well. Outside the city conditions are favorable to malarial and similar indispositions. In a general way there is likely to be a considerable number of cases of ailments originating from climatic causes, and an unusual number of doctors and medicines have been rendezvoused at Manila.

The medical force now on the islands is believed to be sufficient for ordinary purposes, and to meet any demands of the future re-enforcements are being hurried there. The hospital ship Relief will sail from New York direct for Manila via the Suez route, in a day or two with 150 picked men from the hospital corps and about ten doctors. This is in addition to the regular equipment of the doctors and nurses for the Relief. The Relief will be placed at the disposal of Gen. Otis, either as a floating hospital or for use in transferring the sick and convalescent to the general hospital now under way at San Francisco.

Luna Arrives in London.

London, March 1.—Agoncillo's colleague, Luna, arrived here Monday from Montreal. He says his arrival here is due to the annoyance he suffered from myriads of American defectives and secret service agents, following him from Washington to Canada.

The British consul at Manila advised traders there not to participate in the recent meeting of protest against bombarding Iloilo, but to trust rather to application through the British government for recompense for damage done.

Arms for Filipinos.

Madrid, March 1.—The Reforma asserts it has received letters from reliable sources at Manila saying that 30 cannon, 30,000 rifles, and several million cartridges from Japan have been landed at Saul, on the gulf of Lingayen on the west coast of the island of Luzon and about 100 miles from Manila, and have been taken thence to Malolos the seat of the rebel government. The Reforma adds: "Japan evidently intends to act toward the Americans in the Philippines as the Americans acted toward the Spaniards in Cuba."

Oregon Speeding to Manila.

Honolulu, Feb. 23 (via San Francisco, March 1.—The battleship Oregon, accompanied by the collier Irla, sailed for Manila Feb. 20.

Suez, March 1.—The United States gunboat Princeton, has proceeded from here for Manila, her repairs having been completed.

HANS HANSON MADE A HIT AT GRAND LAST NIGHT.

"Hans Hanson" a Swede Dialect Comedy Appears For the First Time Before a Janesville Audience Last Evening.—Beach & Bowers This Evening.

At Myers Grand last evening, another audience was amused, and each and every one laughed themselves hoarse, the occasion for so much merriment being the first appearance of "Hans Hanson," a Swedish dialect comedy in four acts.

Manager Myers is exerting every energy to secure attractions that please, and "Hans Hanson" and his able company were no exceptions to the rule.

Jerome T. McAlpin appeared in the role and his impersonations of a Swede were very good, although a trifle weak as compared with the late Gus Hegge, the author of Ole Olson, who simply upon his appearance on the stage would cause a spontaneous combustion of laughter. However, Mr. McAlpin did well, and his singing and specialty work was immense. Dollie Foster, a pretty little subrette, was his stage companion, and assisted him wonderfully; in fact, they were about the "whole thing," and kept the audience in the best of humor all the evening. The villain, W. W. Crains, played his part to perfection.

The musical portion of the program was one of the features. Between the acts, the "Cassa Reale d' Italia," an Italian girls' band, "direct from Rome," discoursed music, and for "kid" music it was very good indeed, but we doubt very much as to the nationality of the members of the band, though it is undisputed that they play after the "Dagoes" and "Rome" about the world.

The performance was good, and gave general satisfaction, "just the same."

BEACH & BOWERS MINSTRELS.

Funny Jokes, Flaming Songs and Dances At the Grand Tonight.

Beach & Bowers and their strong company of mirth-provokers will hold the boards at the Myers Grand this evening. While the company is old, the features that go to make up the evening's entertainment are new. The company makes no boast of most odious proportions, but it is a creditable organization throughout and the entertainment which many Janesville people will witness this evening will entertain them from the rise until the fall of the curtain. Bobby Beach in his specialty work is extremely ludicrous and will cause you to laugh until your sides split.

The following is one of thousands of flattering testimonials from the press, and published in the San Antonio (Texas) Daily Express:

"There was a large audience at the opera-house last night to greet Beach & Bowers' minstrels. It may be said for them that it was better than some that have been heralded with more pretension. It was more like the old time negro minstrel company that we have been accustomed to see of late years.

Beach and Bowers are both comedians and each has a place on the "end." Their jokes were funny, their songs and dances good and their artistic bones solo brought down the house. The sentimental ballads by Ed C. Sampson, Joe Gomes and Master Richards were well rendered and much appreciated. Master Richards, a youth in his teens, made a decided hit with his pretty song, "She's More to Be Fitted Than Censured," and had to sing another song in response to a hearty encore. He has an excellent voice which was afterward heard to good advantage in a quartette. The finale of the first part, Sousa's band, was very funny on account of the bass drum solo feature.

The olio introduced a number of clever specialties, including the "Male Patti," the premier posturer, the musical monarchs and the Trocadero quartette. The whole concluded with the performance.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

Which Is Better, Try An Experiment Or Profit by a Janesville Citizen's Advice?

Something new is an experiment. Must be proven to be as represented. Be successful at home or you doubt it.

The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of a friend is. Now, supposing you had a bad back, a lame neck or aching one.

Would you experiment on it? You will hear of many so-called cures.

But they come from far away places. Their effects when the endorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove that it is so. Home endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Read this case:

Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Locust St., journeyman carpenter, says: "I have a severe attack of la grippe some time ago, and as the result of this sickness a weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, and annoying me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were so strengthened that I could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years, and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

ance of Bobby Beach's troupe of trained dogs and this was one of the features of the show. These dogs seemed capable of doing everything but talk, and they kept the audience in a high state of expectancy and enjoyment."

EVANS & HOEY'S "A PARLOR MATCH"

At Myers Grand Friday Evening, March 3

Evans & Hoey's "A Parlor Match" which will be presented at the Myers Grand, March 3, is the largest farce comedy production that has ever played in this city. #### Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. #### TWO PAINFUL ACCIDENTS

Two Quite Serious Accidents Happened Yesterday.

Mrs. John Riley, of No. 353 South Franklin street, met with quite a painful accident last evening, by falling and fracturing her right arm just above the wrist. Dr. E. F. Woods was summoned and reduced the fracture and the lady is doing as well as could be expected.

Yesterday afternoon, Roy, the seven-year-old son of Mrs. W. E. Newman, of the town of Center, met with quite a serious accident. While at play on the ice with an axe, he fell in such a manner as to strike the axe, cutting a deep gash three inches long along the right lower jaw. Dr. E. F. Woods was called and sewed up the wound.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned. Josh. Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by People's Drug Co.

Brick-Makers Combine.

De Pere, Wis., March 1.—A scheme is on foot to form a combination of the brick manufacturers in Brown and Outagamie counties. Appleton parties were in the city yesterday and secured options on several of the yards here and negotiations are under way for the remainder. There are thirteen yards in Brown county, of which seven are in De Pere. In Outagamie there are four. The total yearly output of the seven ten yards is about 20,000,000 brick. A capitalization of about $150,000 will be necessary to float the new company. It is thought that there will be little difficulty in carrying out the plan, owing to the demoralization of prices caused by fierce competition, as a result of which few yards have made money.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—There was another relapse from the strong condition noted of the hog trade late last week, closing sales today standing 20¢ below the best prices of Saturday. There was little change in prices for matured cattle, but veal calves had to sell 25¢ below prices recently paid and stock calves were still a drag. Sheep and lambs started out at stronger prices, sales of fancy stock ranging 5¢ to 10¢ higher, but some of the later offerings went slowly at the prices of the day before. Today's run was close to 3,000 cattle, 35,000 hogs and 15,000 sheep, making 16,187 cattle, 70,292 hogs and 28,798 sheep for two days, against 21,602 cattle, 57,204 hogs and 31,823 sheep for the same time last week and 18,134 cattle, 62,692 hogs and 41,631 sheep for same period last year. A big state stock of hogs goes over unsold, supply proving more than ample to the soft-weather demand.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE IN HEART TROUBLES.

Do Not Be Alarmed, But Look For The Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart, Co., Marshall Mich.

WIPES OUT FRANCHISES.

Indiana Legislature Passes a Bill of Interest to the State Capital.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 1.—The senate Tuesday passed the bill under which it is proposed to settle the street railway controversy in Indianapolis, and the bill now goes to the governor for his signature. By this bill all franchises to operate street railways in the city are wiped out and the city is left to make a contract for a thirty-four year franchise with the reorganized Citizens' company. It is provided in the law that if the city fail to contract with this company the franchise shall be sold at auction in January, 1900, to the highest bidder for a period of not more than thirty years. The governor will sign the bill.

Much interest has centered in the street car legislation at the present session. The present franchise expires in 1901. The company was recently organized and the stockholders have argued that the bill will be passed.

STORES AND ENGINES BURN.

Two Disastrous Fires This Morning in Louisville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., March 1.—The Illinois Central roundhouse burned early this morning. Three locomotives and a large quantity of valuable machinery were ruined. The loss amounts to about $75,000, partially covered by insurance.

An act of heroism was performed by Fireman Edward Upp. On a siding near the roundhouse was a car containing 20,000 pounds of powder. Upp backed a switch engine to the car of powder and hauled it to a place of safety.

Fire this morning at 1 o'clock practically wiped out several business houses, entailing a loss of about $140,000. The flames broke out in E. B. Nugent's dry goods store, Nos. 504 and 506 Fourth avenue, and spread to Buschmeyer's drug store and the Louisville Trading Stamp association on the north and the McDowell block on the south. ## WOMEN AND BEARDS.

Will the "new woman" have a beard?
The question stares us squarely in the face.
An exchange is responsible for this paragraph:

A German scientist states that mustaches among women are commoner at the present time than they used to be. He has observed that in Constantinople and Madrid one woman out of every ten has a distinct mustache, while in Philadelphia, only three per cent of the ladies bear unmistakable signs of down upon their upper lips.

Stop and think a moment of the consequences. How would a woman look with an evening dress, and a set of Galway whiskers under her chin? And would her mustache or goatee be the same color as her hair? And if it was not, what would she do about it? Imagine a lady with a beard two feet long! And think of the quarrels between man and wife over the patronizing of union or non-union barber shops! Heavens! What a state of things! What can be done about it? Cannot some American scientist get up a remedy?
Let cholera, yellow fever, small pox, or anything else come. Yea, even sell the pudrums to the gentlemen from Oshkosh, but bar out the bearded lady!

THAT TERRIBLE TARIFF.

According to some of the democratic papers, the real cause of the sickness among the soldiers of the United States army in Cuba was the Dingley tariff, says the American Economist. They claim that by the shutting out of foreign importations American packers were forced to use cans made of domestic tin in which to pack the meats for army use, and that the lead used in this cheap tin poisoned the soldiers! It is, of course, nothing to the point that millions of packages of American tinned meats are constantly in use by the families of this and other countries, and that sickness from this cause has been hitherto unknown. The fact remains that a considerable percentage of our troops did not thrive in the hot climate of the tropics; and it must be that the Dingley tariff was the cause of it.

Novel advertising schemes are always in demand and we clip the following from an exchange as a hint to Janesville advertisers. The writer was a Russian merchant.

"The reason why I have hitherto been able to sell my goods so much cheaper than anybody else is that I am a bachelor, and do not need to make a profit for the maintenance of a wife and children. It is now my duty to inform the public that this advantage will shortly be withdrawn from them, as I am about to be married. They will, therefore, do well to make their purchases at once at the old prices."

A dispatch from Evansville says: "The employees of the Baker Manufacturing company were treated to a surprise last Saturday. At 4 p. m. the whistle sounded and the men were assembled in one of the large rooms; after a kindly and sensible speech Allen S. Baker, treasurer and manager, presented to each employee a check representing 10 per cent. of the entire wages that each employee had earned in the last twelve months. The amount paid averaged $50 per man, many whom had worked the entire year receiving much more than that sum."

Enterprising newspapers hire enterprising young men to collect "live" news—hence the idea that a newspaper never publishes such news except "by special request" may not be well founded. See the point?

Congressman Cooper has worked hard to provide Janesville with a government building, and Janesville people fully appreciate the fact.

It begins to look as if we were certain of that new postoffice—as if we had it "Coopered," as some people might express it.

The United States senate has demonstrated the fact that it is composed of gentlemen of knowledge, judgment and business ability by acting favorably on the bill to erect a postoffice in Janesville.

Mayor Thoroughgood has the right idea of what a citizen should do to advance the interests of his home town—say a good word for it at every opportunity.

WHAT THE MAYOR WROTE

His Answer to An Inquiry From Factory Location

In reply to the inquiry of the Standard Food Co., of Indianapolis, which firm are seeking a location, Mayor Thoroughgood wrote as follows:

Standard Food Co., 114-116 S. Delaware Street, Indianapolis, Indiana. Dear Sirs—Yours of 10th inst. was handed me by Manager Wilmarth, of The Janesville Gazette. I have read same carefully and from your statement notice your want of proper location where facilities for manufacturing your Despotia Product can be done cheaply, and where potatoes can be easily obtained. Everything pertaining to such a plant can be had here for your purpose.

I will say Janesville is situated tributary to one of the best farming districts in Wisconsin. We have a city of about 1400 people. We are almost free from debt and in cases of manufacturing enterprises many concessions could be made. We have buildings here which could be utilized at once and believe—should you come here to investigate—you would be pleased with our city and country, especially for the purpose you speak of. As far as our offering inducements to your company it would be well you call on us and look over the situation.

Let us know something of the amount your company is willing to invest of their own funds. Also probability of success, which cannot be satisfactorily done by letters. We will then talk the matter over. We have the buildings, the situation, the farming community, etc., but whether we have any money it will depend on what you have to encourage us.

Mrs. Margaret Clark, of this city, is owner of a house in the Fourth ward, which she rents for a moderate sum each month.

We receive them daily and the cost to you is no more than the pail, watery taste kind. Sanborn.

HATE THE GERMANS.

Expulsion of Danes Arouses Bitter Feeling in Scandinavia.

Prof. George Brandes some time ago agreed to visit Berlin and deliver an address before the Press Association of that city, but later on declined to keep his engagement on account of the expulsion of Danes from North Schleswig. In an explanatory letter he says that the Germans do not seem to realize the bitter feeling which the expulsions have excited through Scandinavia generally. He then writes: "It is precisely because our government preserves silence that the wounds caused to the national feeling by these measures burn the deeper into the hearts of the people. The theory that an agitation is being conducted from Copenhagen to restore, by force if necessary, North Schleswig to Denmark is too absurd to require serious notice. In all Denmark not a single man thinks of such a thing. But today one cannot denationalize a people by force." The Danish inhabitants of Schleswig, he goes on to say, do not intend to give up their mother-tongue even should their children receive no instructions in it, nor do they intend to renounce their right of freely conversing in Danish with their brothers and sisters across the frontier. Germans must also learn to understand that just as they invoke the sympathy of Europe in view of the hard measures enforced against the German tongue in Bohemia and elsewhere, so too, the Danes, under similar conditions, plead for the right of preserving the Danish language, even though those who speak it may be living in a strange land.

A Doll Fellow.

She—If you could have all your heart's desires what is the first thing you would think of taking? He—I would take off the shoes I am wearing and put on a pair that wouldn't hurt my feet. She then readjusted the piece of court plaster on her Hobson spot and treated him with marked coldness during the rest of the evening.

Rightly Viewed.

This is, after all, the reasonable—as it is the modest—way to view it: "Aren't you afraid that your daughter will come home from college knowing more than you do?" "Well, we shall consider our money thrown away if she doesn't."—Exchange.

CAUGHT THE FORGER.

CHIEF OF SWINDLING GANG SAFE ONCE MORE.

A. J. Conover Must Face Trial—R. W. King, Who Was His Accomplice, Is Caught in Canada and Will Be Tried with Him.

A. J. Conover, said by police officials to be an ex-convict and clever forger and one of the chief agents in the swindling of a half-hundred banks in the country, was recently taken from Chicago to Iowa, where he will be tried for swindling the First National bank there.

Conover was arrested in his home at Port Huron, Mich., by Chief of Police Pettit of that city. The arrest was made at the request of Pinkerton's National Detective agency of Chicago, who represented the American Bankers' association. Conover's daughter created a sensation at the time of the arrest by shooting at Chief Pettit. She was locked up, charged with attempted murder.

Conover will be joined shortly in the county jail at Rock Rapids, Iowa, by one of his alleged companions in crime, Robert W. King of Paisley, Ont., who has been committed for extradition by Judge Barrett at Walkerton, Ont. King was arrested on December 23, and has been fighting extradition since that time.

A. J. CONOVER.

The particular charge against Conover and King is the passing of a forged draft for $550 on the First National bank of Rock Rapids, Iowa, on November 15, 1893. The draft in question purported to be issued by the Partridge Banking company, Seneca Falls, N. Y., to the order of A. R. Brown, and indorsed by Brown (Conover) to H. R. White (King).

Conover was the alleged leader of a gang of forgers, of which he, King, Thomas Chambers and William Badgley were members. Chambers and Badgley passed a similar draft on the First National bank of Lanark, Ill., on the same day Conover and King passed the one at Rock Rapids. The Lanark bank, after cashing the draft, became suspicious, and telegraphed the bank purporting to issue the draft, and receiving a reply to the effect that it was a forgery, telephoned the authorities of the neighboring towns, and both men were arrested in Freeport, Ill., the same day. They were convicted and are now serving an indeterminate sentence in Joliet.

In their many forgeries these men traveled in pairs and posed as horse buyers. They would visit small towns and first become acquainted with the local liverymen. Occasionally they bought a horse, making a small payment to bind the bargain. After being in town a day or two they would induce the hotel-keeper or liveryman to introduce one of the two to the bank, where a genuine draft for $100 would be left for collection. They would then visit other towns in the vicinity, repeating this performance. In a week or ten days they would return to the first town and receive the proceeds of the genuine draft. The fact that this draft was promptly paid gave them a standing at the bank, and when the bogus draft was presented and the banker was told that the money was needed to pay for horses purchased the cash was usually forthcoming.

Expressive.

It is no wonder there was a general laugh when recently in a church in a certain seaport town a proud father brought his first-born to be christened. He was more at home on deck than in his present position, and he gingerly held the struggling infantile specimen of humanity, who kicked and wriggled till, between linen and fountains and baby, the father completely lost his bearings. For a minute there was confusion. The ceremony came to a stop and the congregation tittered. Then from a pew near by came the reassuring voice of a good shipmate: "Up-end it, Jack, up-end it! It's head's below hatches!" The language was expressive, but it was no wonder the people smiled.

MIDWINTER FAIR WELL UNDER WAY

PROSPECTS MOST FLATTERING FOR GRAND SUCCESS.

Everything Opened With a Rush This Morning and At An Early Hour Three Hundred Exhibitors Were Waiting to Get Their Goods In Place.

Janesville's Fourth Midwinter Fair opened with a rush at 7 o'clock this morning. Over three hundred exhibitors were ready and waiting to get their goods into place, and there were two day loads of exhibits in the secretary's office on West Milwaukee street deposited there early in the week.

Nobody who saw the rink building at noon on Tuesday would have thought a fair could be held under that roof this week. There was half a train load of salt, lumber, agricultural machinery, crockery, general merchandise and scrap iron to move, besides the repairing of much of the floor, the erecting of shelving, the whitewashing of the rink interior, the removal of railings and an immense amount of general cleaning.

President George M. McKee set his committee at work on fifty things at once, and while entries were pouring in at the secretary's office, wagon loads of debris were pouring out of the front door of the rink.

Two farm machinery men came in about 2 o'clock to ask where they should place their exhibits.

"We might as well go away and come back next week some time," said one of them; "there won't be a fair held here inside of five days."

Four hours later they came around again, found the floor cleared, and show cases and counters in place.

"Well, he said, 'this town beats the world for quick moves.'"

The farmers who came pouring in with corn, barley, oats and potatoes this morning, echoed the same remark. Out of confusion came order, and at 12 o'clock the big show was under full headway.

As in previous years the exhibits reflected very closely the agricultural conditions in the county. The corn exhibits, though not as large as last year, seemed more carefully selected, and of a higher grade. The show of potatoes is very large and fine. Barley and oats are there in strong array, and those with the sweet tooth were glad to know that mince pies and cream cake vines never bore more luxuriantly than for this event.

The arrangement of the rink this year gives much better facilities for handling the crowd. Through the kindness of F. A. Taylor, who now holds the lease of the rink, the fair committee has been given the entire floor space, from the posts on the north to the uttermost wall on the south. This gives much more room for the culinary display and permits the needs work department to be adequately protected from dirt and disorder. Mr. Taylor has been indefatigable in assisting the committee and has done everything in his power to make the fair a success. The program for the week is altogether informal. There will be music every morning and afternoon and there will be short speeches from time to time as the judges finish in the different departments. The speeches will be confined strictly to the question brought out by the judging. One of the most valuable addresses will be that of Prof. A. J. Decker of the state university, who is to judge the butter exhibit and then give his conclusion on the most practical improvements for Rock county dairymen. Supt. McKerrow, of the State Farm Institute, has done all in his power to provide expert judges in each department and will be here himself Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. His remarks will undoubtedly be profitable and full of interest.

Sixty of the Agricultural Short Course students from the state university attended the fair today and were greatly impressed by the display of grains and vegetables.

The students gave up the greater part of the week to Rock county. They spent Monday in Orfordville judging the jersey herd of H. C. Taylor. Tuesday they were on the farm of McLay Bros. where their ability was attested in judging short horn cattle and Clydesdale horses. In some of the cattle classes the competition was very close. The students, however, showed great skill in placing the awards and reflected much credit upon their instructor, Prof. W. L. Carlyle. They judged from the beef standpoint only. Some very fine specimens of Scotch Topped and Cruikshank blood were shown.

Dinner was served at the home of J. McLay, and in the afternoon Clydesdale horses were judged. There were eight classes and competition was very close. Some exceptionally fine individuals such as Handsome Prince and others of no less renown were led into the ring.

This afternoon there was music by Beach & Bowers' minstrel band and at 2:30 the orchestra for the State School for the Blind filed in and discoursed stirring music until 5 o'clock. The Imperial band and the Y. M. C. A. band will furnish music tomorrow and Friday.

The judging of horses began at 1:30 this afternoon, walking teams being the first class shown.

The prize winners in these events were:

Fastest Walking Team: 1st, B. W. Austin, Johnstown; 2nd, Wm. Finster, Bradford; 3d, Fred Decker, Janesville; 4th, J. F. Brandt, La Prairie. Winner walked block and a half in 1:29.

Saddle Horses—1st, C. E. Culmer,

Janesville; 2nd, John Huginin; 3d, Fred Morrison.

The events for Thursday and Friday are as follows:

Thursday, 1:30 p. m.—Farm team, draft team, single draft horse, and grand cavalcade of farm teams and wagons decorated with farm products.

INSANE DOMESTIC TERRIBLE BURNED

SATURATED HER CLOTHES WITH KEROSENE.

Then She Set Fire to Herself By Means of a Lighted Lamp—Face and Body Cooked and She May Die—Relatives Reside Near Evansville.

With her clothes saturated with kerosene, Miss Mary Murray was nearly burned to death at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bliss, on East street, North, at 9:30 o'clock last night. The unfortunate woman, who had been with the family for some time as a domestic, gave signs several days ago of being mentally irresponsible. She was much unsettled yesterday, and about nine o'clock went to her room and locked herself in. Half an hour later piercing screams were heard, and she rushed into the hall with her clothes all ablaze.

H. H. Bliss rushed up stairs, alarmed by her cries, and smothered the flames in blankets.

Before the flames were controlled, they had done fearful execution on her face and body. Dr. E. E. Loomis was summoned at once, and did what was possible to relieve the injured woman's sufferings. This was difficult, however, as her condition made restraint necessary.

This morning it was found necessary to place her in the county asylum for her own protection, her condition making it impossible to send her to either of the city hospitals. Her parents, who live near Evansville, were notified and are expected to arrive this evening.

It seems a miracle that the flames, which started from the blazing lamp, did not result in the destruction of the house. Examination showed that the top of the lamp had been unscrewed and the oil cap taken off while the lamp was still burning. How a disastrous explosion was avoided was a marvel.

MR. KLEIN VERY SUCCESSFUL

City Electrician Works Under Many Disadvantages In Thawing Pipes.

Later this afternoon City Electrician Klein was notified that he could no longer use the street railway engine and dynamo, as Supt. Greene was afraid that the machinery was being overtaxed. Hence no more thawing can be done unless the lighting dynamo can be used.

Despite the fact that he is working under many disadvantages City Electrician Klein is extraordinary successful in thawing pipes. He is forced to work at night, as the street railway dynamo affords the only power at his disposal, and they cannot be used until after the cars are laid up for the night. Last night he went to work on the pipes leading to the residence of Dr. J. F. Fember. There was two hundred and fifty feet of water main and it was 900 feet from the trolley. The flow of water was made in the remarkably short time of twenty minutes.

The only obstacle in the way of greater success is the lack of a proper current—the street car dynamo giving too many volts, and not enough amperes. The term "volts" means pressure—as the horse power of a steam engine—while "amperes" mean working force—heat, in this case—as the power developed by the steam engine. If one of the electric lighting dynamo could be used in connection with the street railway trolley, Mr. Klein could thaw any service pipe in the city. However, as he is forced to rely solely on the street railway dynamo, he says there is no hope for those whose water supply is taken through a two inch main, provided the two inch main is the one frozen, nor for those who have service pipes that are larger than three-quarter inch, as he cannot get the required "pressure" with the machinery at his disposal.

He will attempt to thaw half a dozen services after the street cars run to the barn tonight.

The city electrician knows his business thoroughly, and it is too bad that he cannot have the power that would certainly enlarge the field of his usefulness.

LOCAL ODD FELLOWS LAND IT

Next Grand Encampment I. O. O. F. To Be Held Here.

Local Members of the Independent Order Odd Fellows are to be congratulated and the citizens of Janesville generally are in luck.

At the grand encampment of the order, which was recently held in Marinette, it was decided to hold the next grand encampment in this city, as the Gazette intimated it would do in a recent issue.

Twelve long years have passed since an encampment has been held in this city, and it goes without saying that the local members will exert themselves to make the affair a grand success, and one that will discount anything in the past.

The encampment will mean much to Janesville, as it will bring hundreds of delegates from every section of the state. All will lend a helping hand to make the gathering an enjoyable one for the visitors.

A Traveling Cat.

A cat has just died in San Francisco that had traveled very nearly a million miles. It belonged to the chief engineer of the royal mail steamer Alameda, and for thirteen years was his companion on board ship in all his voyages between Sydney and San Francisco. With the passengers this remarkable cat was a great favorite, and on completing 700,000 miles it was presented with a silver collar.

DEMISE OF MARY BREMMER

Formerly Resided Here and Is Well Known by Early Settlers.

The remains of the late Mrs. Mary Bremmer arrived in the city this morning from Mukranago, Wis., and were taken from the St. Paul depot to Oak Hill cemetery for interment.

Deceased made this city her home and while here will be remembered as the wife of Colonel Fitch. She was a woman esteemed by many of the early settlers here who will mourn her demise. The pall bearers were: J. M. Bostwick, W. M. Eldredge, Alfred Dewey and George Hanthorn.

Mrs. Cornelius Gillespie

From St. Patrick's church at 9:30 o'clock this morning funeral services were held over the remains of the late Mrs. Cornelius Gillespie. The interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery.

About sixteen months ago Mrs. Gillespie suffered a stroke of paralysis from which she never fully recovered. For the past two months she had been growing steadily weaker until last Wednesday, when that dread disease, pneumonia, came to take her from her happy home, and leave a fond husband and dear children to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. It can be truly said of her, "she always made home happy." All that loving hands could possibly do was done to give her a moment's relief, but all was of no avail. She longed and prayed to go home, and God, who doeth all things well, took her to live forever with Him.

Deceased was sixty years of age, forty-three years of which was spent in Janesville. Her life had been one of usefulness and helpfulness to those around her. She was a faithful member of St. Patrick's Catholic church, and was loved and respected by all who knew her. Besides a fond husband, two sons, five daughters, two brothers and two sisters are left to mourn her loss; they being Mrs. W. Britt, of the town of Janesville; Edward, James, Mary, Mrs. H. Cullen, Catherine, Margaret, Patrick and John Reilly, Mrs. O. Keenan and Mrs. D. Reilly, all of this city.

Norman Denning.

Norman Denning, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Denning, formerly of this city, now of Milwaukee, died yesterday morning at their home in the Cream City.

The remains arrived in the city last evening from Milwaukee and were taken to the home of the grandfather of the deceased, William Denning, 169 South Franklin street. The afflicted couple have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the house.

STUDENTS INSPECT MUCH LIVE STOCK

FIFTY-EIGHT UNIVERSITY BOYS
HERE TODAY.

Much Pleased With the Attention Rock County Farmers Are Giving to Breeding Valuable Stock—Galbraith and McLay Brothers Horses Closely Inspected—All Are Pleased.

Fifty-eight students of the short course at the agricultural college, who left Madison in a special car Monday morning on a nine days' trip over the state under the direction of Prof. W. L. Carlyle to judge stock, spent the day in Janesville judging stock exhibited by Alex. Galbraith, the well known local importer whose large barns are near the edge of the city limits. Yesterday the young men visited McLay Bros' stock farm and were well repaid for their trouble.

They closely inspected the stock placed before them for inspection, and many stated that finer specimens of horse flesh had not yet been seen. Several of the students said today that for the breeding of first class live stock they thought Rock county farmers were well entitled to a place in the front ranks. This trip is rendered necessary on account of the meager supply of stock kept at the university farm, and the importance of bringing before them some of the best bred animals of all types, which is an utter impossibility at the farm under present conditions. Eight valuable medals are offered by public spirited citizens of the state to be awarded to the best judge in this competitive trial.

The students will arrive home Tuesday evening. They meet their own expenses. The railroads have granted a rate of two cents per mile, and the hotels also grant them reduced rates. The whole amount will average about $18 for the trip.

Last year only 40 students went; on this trip the number is increased to 58, and with 120 in the first year course, it is expected that 100 students will make the next annual trip.

MR. SOULMAN HAS A WORD

Is Not Running a "Scab Shop" and Pays Union Wages.

Editor Gazette:—I do not wish to long a newspaper controversy, but am anxious that my friends understand that I did not run "a scab" shop, and have no intention of doing so. I am paying union wages and have suggested no reduction. There has been no grievance in my shop as regards the condition of work, and if it had not been for the discussion as to where I shaved, there never would have been any trouble. The matter has been carried to unnecessary length in the papers already, and I shall make no further statement, but wish to give my friends this assurance before I close. JOHN SOULMAN.

JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG.

LIFE STORY OF THE GREAT LITERALIST.

Rose from an Office Boy to Distinction and Renown—Won Spurs as a Correspondent at the Battle of Bull Run.

John Russell Young, librarian of congress, who died in Washington recently, was born in Downingtown, Chester county, Pa., Nov. 20, 1841. The family moved to Philadelphia and he was educated in the public schools of that city. Later he went to New Orleans, where an uncle lived, and continued his school work in the New Orleans high school. Returning to Philadelphia he secured a place on the Philadelphia Press in 1857 as copy boy, and from this dated his newspaper work.

When John W. Forney went to Washington in 1861 to become secretary of the senate he brought along Young, who by that time had become a fluent writer. While acting as Colonel Forney's private secretary Mr. Young continued his writings to the Philadelphia Press, and it was by his description of the first battle of Bull Run that he won his spurs as a war correspondent. He followed the army of the Potomac to the end of the Chickahominy campaign. In 1864 he accompanied

JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG.

General Nathaniel P. Banks on the Red river expedition. On returning he became managing editor of the Philadelphia Press, which he resigned in 1865 to start the Morning Post, which, however, was not a success.

He had contributed to the New York Tribune, and his pleasing style attracted the attention of Horace Greeley, with the result that in 1866 Young became managing editor of the paper with which Greeley had so long been associated. At that time Young was only 25 years old. His leisure time he devoted to the study of law, and in 1867 was admitted to the bar in New York city. In 1870 he again tried the establishment of a newspaper of his own, the Standard.

About this time, however, Secretary Boutwell, who was at the head of the treasury department in President Grant's cabinet, induced Young to go abroad to look into financial affairs. While on this mission the awful days of the Paris commune took place, and Mr. Young's account of the rise and fall of the commune and of the stirring days through which the French capital passed is regarded as one of the best examples of English descriptive writing.

In 1872 he became the European representative of the New York Herald, and spent two years in London and Paris, and another year in work and travel on the continent. In 1877 General Grant started upon his memorable trip around the world, and on his invitation Mr. Young joined the party. This made him for two years almost a member of the family of the great general, and a warm friendship sprang up between them. After the return Mr. Young wrote, "Around the World with General Grant."

During this trip Mr. Young was specially interested in China, to which country President Arthur sent him in 1882 as United States minister. He remained in China until the opening of the first Cleveland administration, when he returned to this country and engaged in literary and business pursuits.

When the new library of congress was completed attention was directed to the choice of a librarian embodying literary ability and executive management, and President McKinley named Mr. Young on July 1, 1897. He entered upon his duties while the library was still in its cramped quarters at the capitol, and saw it expand into the classic temple of the arts and literature which it now occupies. The transition involved not only a removal of precious volumes, but the complete reorganization of the library staff. Mr. Young directed all of this, bringing about the change from the old to the new with smoothness and success. It is said that his time had been spent in part on a contribution to literature which he had hoped to complete as the chief literary achievement of his life.

Those Little Curls.

No matter what the style of coiffure is, whether the hair is done high or low, or in pompadour combs, below the coil there are found two, sometimes three tiny curls. They add a quaint coquettishness to a pretty face that is charming in the extreme. Not once in fifty times are they natural. It is impractical to curl the ends of the hair that are needed to wind up scientifically the coil. But they are pretty just the same, and make a pretty face twice as attractive.

CONGRESS SADLY TANGLED.

Present Conditions Point to an Extra Session.

NICARAGUA CANAL THE CAUSE.

Friends and Enemies of the Bill Have Taken a Determined Stand—Sundry Civil Bill Passed by the Senate—House Proceedings.

Washington, March 1.—With but three and a half days of the session remaining, congress is in a state of demoralization which surpasses all precedents.

The danger of an extra session, which it was thought was averted by passing the Gorman army organization bill through the senate, has become more imminent than ever before by the fight over the Nicaragua canal bill.

The proponents of the canal scheme reject with scorn the compromise resolution offered in the house by Representative Burton of Ohio. They say the resolution was dictated by Speaker Reed, who is an avowed opponent of the canal, and that its only effect, if adopted, would be to delay the work of constructing the waterway at least five years. They say that they are strong enough to force the passage of the canal scheme or compel an extra session of the next congress.

The advocates of the canal have been very busy and have made a combination with the supporters of the river and harbor bill which Speaker Reed may find it very difficult to overcome.

Speaker Reed is determined, however, to defeat the Nicaragua canal scheme, no matter at what cost, and the advocates of that project are equally determined to have it passed by the present congress. The fight over the canal is gradually broadening out until it embraces nearly every measure pending in congress.

It is claimed that four-fifths of the senate and two-thirds of the house are in favor of the canal bill, and the question now presents itself whether the opposition of Speaker Reed shall prevent a vote on the measure in the house.

SUNDY CIVIL BILL WINS.

Senate Approves the Measure at the End of a Long Day.

Washington, March 1.—The sundry civil measure was approved just before adjournment of the senate Tuesday. The other bills passed were principally public building measures.

Bills carrying an aggregate of $8,000,000 or $10,000,000 were passed, and many more that had not been passed by both houses of congress were placed as amendments on the sundry civil appropriation bill. Finally, at a late hour, an amendment to the sundry civil bill was adopted appropriating nearly $4,000,000 for the preliminary work on the buildings which had been authorized.

A partial conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill was agreed to. The matter remaining in disagreement is the subject of special appropriations for fast mail service for the south and between Kansas City and Newton, Kas. The senate further insisted upon its amendments and another conference was ordered.

House Proceedings.

Washington, March 1.—The house spent practically the entire time of the seven-hour session Tuesday passing the public building bills favorably acted on by the committee of the whole ten days ago. Sixty-one bills in all were passed, carrying $9,352,000.

The conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill agreeing to the senate amendment making an appropriation for the southern mail subsidy was adopted. The general deficiency appropriation was reported and will be considered today. It is the last of the budgets to be acted on by the house and will probably be passed under suspension of the rules. It carries $21,089,384.

After many struggles the committees of the house on the general claims appropriation bill reached an agreement. The bill as agreed upon appropriates $3,100,768, or about one-third of the amount carried by the omnibus claims bills, which originally passed the senate. All the state and school and church claims were eliminated from the bill.

Demands Evacuation of Cuba.

Washington, March 1.—Senator Foraker has given notice that he would offer the following as an amendment to the army appropriation bill when it comes before the senate: "That no franchises or concessions of any kind whatever shall be granted by the United States or by any authority whatever for which the United States is responsible in the island of Cuba during the occupation thereof by the United States; and provided, further, that the pacification of the island of Cuba having been accomplished, the president is hereby authorized to withdraw the military forces of the United States therefrom and to leave the government and control of the island to its own people."

Rival to the Steel Trust.
Youngstown, Ohio, March 1.—The National Steel company is to have a formidable rival if the project now under way is consummated. Local capitalists are organizing a company with $20,000,000 capital to purchase thirty-five rolling mills in the county. If the effort to secure these properties succeed the Brown-Bonell Coal and Iron company, Mahoning Valley Iron company and Andrews Bros. will go into the deal.

WILL PASS THE SENATE.

Agreement Reached on the Allen Law Repeal Bill.

Springfield, Ill., March 1.—The Allen law repeal bill will pass the senate this week, however, just as it stands. That was the outcome of a conference between Senators Busse and Campbell of the one side and Senator Berry, Clever J. Lindley, J. Mack Tanner and Lieut. Gov. Northcott on the other. At the close of the conference it was announced that an agreement had been reached as stated.

When the Allen repeal bill came into the senate from the house Tuesday it was read a first time and made a special order on second reading for today.

There is every likelihood that the legislature at this session will give approval to the bill for a general act relating to negotiable instruments, the object of which is to establish a law uniform with the laws of other states on this subject. The senate passed the bill Tuesday.

The Willard statue bill is now a law. The senate Tuesday concurred in the house amendment.

The senate concurred in the house resolution recognizing the provisional regiments raised during the war with Spain and authorizing the governor to issue complimentary commissions to their officers.

Representative Kunkler introduced a bill modeled after the measure proposed by Gov. Mount of Indiana, intended to prevent lynching. It gives relatives of a person killed in any riot, mob or lynching the right to recover from the county to the extent of $3,000.

Representative Searcy introduced a bill modifying the common-law fellow-servant rule in specified cases of personal injury or death and making the employer liable.

Representative Hilboldt offered a bill fining firms or corporations that attempt to prevent their employees from belonging to unions.

Appropriate.

"I have invited several army officers," said the hostess, "and I am anxious that the occasion shall be something unique and appropriate. I don't want anything commonplace, like a 5 o'clock tea, or a pink tea, or a violet tea." "Well," suggested Miss Cayenne, after deliberation, "why not make it a beef tea?"—Washington Star.

Indiana Man Gets the Place.

Washington, March 1.—Edward J. Thompson of Indianapolis, Ind., has been selected as postmaster of Havana, Cuba. For several years he has been deputy postmaster at Indianapolis and is a trained postal official.

The Daily Mail at the White House.

To read his daily mail is one of the burdensome tasks that falls to a President of the United States. More than a thousand letters a day have been at times received at the White House. The average daily mail is very large. Of course Mr. McKinley cannot read these letters as an ordinary business man reads his morning mail, but by a carefully developed system their contents are in substance presented to him. Several confidential clerks open the letters and give them a first reading. They are then carefully sorted. Many of them do not need to go to the President, as they are simply recommendations for office. These, after being courteously acknowledged, are referred to the proper department and placed on file until the subject to which each of them relates can be taken up for consideration.

Tornado Sweeps Over Mississippi.

Memphis, Tenn., March 1.—Telegrams from Yazoo City, Miss., bring details of a tornado which passed over that district Saturday night. Nearly 100 persons were made homeless and penniless by the storm, and the losses to property will reach thousands of dollars. Two persons were killed and six or seven fatally injured. Committees have been organized to care for the injured.

Wisconsin Soldiers Start Home.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 1.—The Fourth Wisconsin infantry regiment, 1,300 men, was mustered out of the United States service in Anniston, Ala., Tuesday. The boys left immediately for home, two special train loads passing through Chattanooga over the Cincinnati Southern road. The boys expect to stop over in Chicago two days.

Ministerial Crisis Imminent.

Madrid, March 1.—A ministerial crisis is imminent. The cabinet is convinced of the impossibility of avoiding defeat in the final vote on the bill for the cession of the Philippines, as the opposition may increase, while the government cannot hope to gain a single additional supporter.

Slight Change for Better.

Washington, March 1.—Mrs. John A. Logan's condition was not much changed last night, though her physicians think there has been a slight improvement. Her fever has abated somewhat and she appears to be resting a little more comfortably.

Another Offer by Spaniards.

Manila, March 1.—It is reported here that Spain authorized Gen. Rios to offer the Philippine republic $500,000 for the release of the Spanish prisoners. The offer was indignantly declined and the insurgents asked $7,000,000.

TRIALS OF SALESWOMEN.

Mrs. Pinkham Says Standing Still is One of Woman's Most Trying Tasks.

Have you ever thought why it is that so many women or girls rather walk for an hour than stand still for ten minutes?

It is because most women suffer from some derangement of their delicate organism, the discomfort from which is less trying when they are in motion than when standing.

So serious are these troubles and so dangerous to health that the laws in some states compel employers to provide resting places for their female employees.

But no amount of law can regulate the hard tasks of these women. Customers are exacting, and expect the saleslady to be always cheerful and pleasant. How can a girl be cheerful when her back is ached by lassitude and bearing how sweet tempered she is way under the pain after a while. Want cross and snappy saleswomen important capital, and no one can be amiable when racked with pain.

If you are ill or suffering, write without delay to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and tell her all about yourself. Your story will not be new to her; she has heard it many thousand times and will know just what you need. Without doubt, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, it has done such wonderful things for suffering women. Do not hesitate to write her all the little things that make you feel miserable. Your letter will not be seen by any man, and Mrs. Pinkham's advice will cost you nothing.

Read this letter from Mrs. MARGARET ANDERSON, 463 Lisbon St., Lewiston, Me.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I had suffered with painful menstruation every month. At the beginning of menstruation it was impossible for me to stand up for more than five minutes. I felt so miserable. One day a little book of Mrs. Pinkham's was thrown into my house, and I sat right down and read it. I then got some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills.

"I can heartily say that to-day I feel like a new woman; my monthly suffering is a thing of the past. I shall always praise the Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me."
